The Urban League of Greater Madison, Wisconsin International Outreach Consortium & UW South Madison Partnership present:

3rd Annual South Madison International Community Night

Thursday, June 2nd 5:00pm - 8:00pm
Villager Mall Grounds 2312 S. Park Street Madison, WI

All ages welcome for this FREE event!

Featuring:

Tani Diakite a musical force who has inspired an entire community of artists. With his Kamale n’goni, a West African ancestor to the banjo, and his plaintive singing, he never fails to drop the deepest blues around!

DanzTrad Danza Tradicional Mexicana will perform passionate versions of traditional Mexican folk dances, promoting the fusion of cultures, music, and traditions of Mexico.

AND MORE...

COME OUT AND ENJOY international music, dance performances, UW and community organizations, food carts, activities & crafts for kids!

Sponsored by: Institute for Regional and International Studies at UW-Madison

&

Urban League of Greater Madison
Best Midwest
WIOC Wisconsin International Outreach Consortium
South Madison Partnership

This is not a school-sponsored activity and the Madison Metropolitan School District does not approve, support, supervise or endorse this program/activity.